FOUR HANDS WORKING at the TABLE

Chorus
Four hands working at the table.
Two are young and two are older.
Four hands strong and able.
Hands that work and hands that love.

Verse 1:
We're clearing the land and plowing the field.
The wheat is planted and it grows tall.
We're cutting the wheat my brother and I.
We are harvesting the wheat for the people we love.

Chorus

Verse 2:
We're making bread my sister and I.
We're making dough with eggs, flour and yeast.
I've churned the butter and you made the bread.
We're making bread and butter for the people we love.

The Colonial Pennsylvania Plantation is a private non-profit educational corporation operated under lease agreement with the Pennsylvania Department of Conservation and Natural Resources.

Since 1974 the Colonial Pennsylvania Plantation has offered programs related to 18th century Pennsylvania farm life to the public through its special events and living history weekend activities. It has also been recognized as a leader in the development of hands-on programs for students of all ages.

On-site programs, which run April through mid-November, allow visitors, from preschoolers to senior citizens, to see, hear, smell, and touch the world of the colonial farm family.

Although being at the farmstead with its historic buildings and period animals is the best way to learn about 18th century colonial Pennsylvania, a trip to the Plantation may not be possible for everyone.

If you can not come to us this year, we will be happy to bring the 18th century to you and your group.

OUTREACH programs are available January through March. For more information or to schedule an OUTREACH program, please call our office at 610-566-1725

Preschool and Kindergarten OUTREACH Programs

These OUTREACH programs were specifically created for 3 to 5 year olds. Each 40 minute program introduces children to the 18th century while exploring the life of a colonial child through song, story telling and hands-on projects.

Bread and Butter

Colonial children worked together to make life easier and to get their chores done. This presentation tells the story of the "little red hen" and working together.

Samples of wheat, flour and bread are experienced through texture, smell and taste. A song about working together is sung while the children make butter.

Buckle My Shoe

Learn about colonial children at play through songs, games and toys. 18th century toys such as noisemakers, Jacob ladders, ball & cup, and dolls will be available for play time. Games may include "Duck, Duck, Goose," "In and Out of the Window," "Cobbler, Cobbler, Mend My Shoe" and other games if time permits.

Baa Baa Black Sheep

It took time and skill to make clothing in the 18th century. Colonial clothing is explained through songs, and the spinning and carding of wool along with a demonstration of the clothing worn by a colonial child. Children can feel and smell natural wool and look at examples of naturally dyed handspun yarn. They will also make and color colonial paper dolls.

Cost:

$50 per 40 minute program for 25 students

Our Plantation Store stocks a Colonial Activity Book and several colonial toys. When you call to book your OUTREACH program ask about availability and pricing.
